That's it! Now it is time to learn how to open and close your first digital trading positions.

NOTE

The minimum investment amount is 250 EUR/GBP, but please bear in mind that most traders invest around 1000 EUR/GBP as it the most effective way of developing your trading portfolio.

OPEN A DEAL

1. Congratulations! You have made your first investment. Now it's time to get the maximum out of it on the digital currency markets. First of all, you need to open the KontoFX trading platform. Navigate to the top of the screen and click on "Trade Now".

2. The KontoFX digital trading platform is famous for its easy-to-use interface and powerful features. In the next page we will go over each element of the platform and what purpose does it have.

OPEN A DEAL

3. The digital trading platform consists of 5 main elements:

Trading Chart Information

Now your eyes should slide right on the screen, just over the BUY/SELL AREA. Depending on your personal analysis of the current price and trends make a decision whether you would like to BUY or SELL CFDs on the Bitcoin/Euro .

You should take notice of some important details:

- Choose the volume you would like to trade with
- Decide whether you would like to BUY or SELL
For the purpose of this guide, we have chosen "BUY"
- The traders trend is the place where you can see in which direction the price is supposed to go.
- Finally, the button "INVEST" should start glowing in blue and you will be able to finalize opening your deal
